

Shepstone & Wylie grows its Johannesburg footprint

Shepstone & Wylie's presence in Johannesburg has grown organically in response to the dynamic pace of work in the city. The expansion of this office is providing our clients with additional scope and resources, lead by the exceptional quality of the legal talent we are attracting.

The firm takes pleasure in welcoming Tayob Kamdar as a partner in our Johannesburg branch. As a senior practitioner, Tayob brings to the team a wealth of experience and knowledge, specialising in Commercial Litigation and Administrative Law.

DYNAMIC PEOPLE JOIN SHEPSTONE & WYLIE

Freek van Rooyen has joined the firm as a senior partner in our Johannesburg office. With a wealth of customs experience, Freek comes from a larger Johannesburg-based law firm where he was in charge of all customs legal work.

Petr Erasmus also joins Freek's team in Johannesburg as an associate partner. Petr spent some 16 years at SARS and brings all of this practical insight and experience to the customs team.

Freek and Petr strengthen our national customs@wylie team, which now comprises of

Quintus van der Merwe
Freek van Rooyen
Pré Prinsloo
Petr Erasmus
Mark Boucher
Taryn Hunkin

Customs@wylie is undoubtedly the leading team of choice for customs work in Africa. Give them a call.
